DISSERTATION WORK

B.Sc. (Econ.) Thesis

Statistical Learning Approaches to the Socioeconomic Determinants of Social Relegation

- Conducted an exploratory analysis of the data of interest.
- Applied various statistical learning methods for the purpose of binary classification.
- Developed the utilised models in R.
- Extracted using Shapley values the variables that contributed the most to the algorithms' predictions.
- Specified their effects on the models' outputs using Shapley's dependence plots.
- Analysed and discussed the results.
